

You Gentlemen of England

Alto

trad. arr.R.Jeffrey

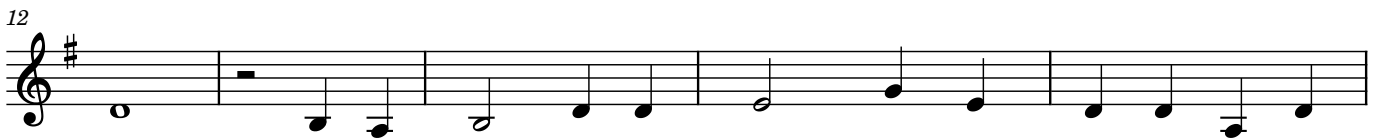

You gen - tle - men of Eng - land, that live at home at If en - e - mies op - pose us, and Eng - land is at A sail - or must have cou - rage, no dan - ger he must But when the dan - ger's o - ver, and safe we come on ease, How lit - tle do you think up - on the dan - gers of the war, With a - ny for - eign na - tion, we fear not wound or shun, In eve - ry kind of wea - ther his course he still must shore, The hor - rors of the tem - pest we think u - pon no seas, Give ear un - to the ma - ri - ners, and they will plain - ly scar, To hum - ble them come on lads, their flags we'll soon lay run, Now mount - ed on the top - mast, how fear - ful 'tis be - more, We find a heart - y wel - come where - e - ver we may show, All the cares, and the fears, When the stor - my winds do low, Clear the way for the fray, Though the stor - my winds do low, Then we ride as the tide, When the stor - my winds do go, Safe and sound on dry ground, When the stor - my winds do blow.

blow.
blow.
blow.